

Shaun Keeling -Operations Director

Shaun Keeling, is a highly experienced, multi skilled Operations Director and the consummate professional in all aspects of business including finance, planning, logistics, marketing, and business development.

A highly qualified former member of Her Majesties Royal Marines with extensive overseas operational and command experience in high threat areas including operational tours of Helmand Province, Afghanistan.

On retiring from the military Shaun pursued his career in the private security industry as a Surveillance Operative, and planned, prepared and executed a multitude of complex surveillance and counter surveillance operations throughout the United Kingdom and Europe.

Shaun is uniquely qualified as a Maritime Security Consultant with ship and Port Security Officer qualifications and with extensive operational experience in commanding teams on board merchant vessels transiting in high-risk areas such as the pirate-infested waters of the Gulf of Aden, Somali basin and Indian Ocean.

Having a wide experience in all types of Close Protection Operations in both domestic and hostile environments, Shaun's clients have included overseas Royalty, Heads of State, Diplomats, Celebrities and Ultra high net-worth individuals. He is also qualified and experienced in planning and delivering all aspects of Close Protection and Counter Terrorist training, particularly in high threat areas incorporating a multilingual team of predominantly former military UK and US Special Forces.

Shaun provides SIS with an unrivalled combination of experience in operations, logistics, leadership, and management that enables us to focus on effective clients based security solutions. Shaun says, "The innate diversity in the whole spectrum of security issues the modern world is enormous. Threats to property, assets, information, and persons are ever present from physical and technical attack. At SIS we tackle this with a combination of innovative technology and uncompromising time tested methods, with our clients interests always at the forefront!"