

Leslie Graham Leek-Managing Director

Profile

Les is a highly successful Director and Managing Director with wide international experience in Innovation, Business Development, Marketing, and Logistics. Proven capability in negotiating at the very highest level in business, government, military and law enforcement.

International background in the investigation of, and the management of teams in serious criminal investigations including terrorism, drugs, and trafficking of human beings. Experience in security management, technology and training. Strategic and detailed planner. Able to operate in challenging environments world-wide.

During a 30 year distinguished police career Les served throughout mainland Great Britain, Northern Ireland, and on overseas enquiries and operations. He served mainly in CID, National Crime Squads, Counter Terrorist and Surveillance roles during his service and was one of the most highly commended officers in the police service for outstanding investigative and operational skills.

In senior command posts, he served in Divisional CID, Counter Terrorist Roles, Head of Intelligence and the Commanding Officer of a major UK Police Undercover Team. He has worked and trained extensively with military teams from the UK, EU and USA throughout his law enforcement career.

Since retiring from the Police Service he has been deployed on a number of operational and training commitments throughout the world on behalf of government agencies, international organisations and the corporate sector as an expert consultant in serious and organised crime, surveillance operations, undercover policing, witness protection, election fraud, and counter trafficking.

He has also worked extensively in the private sector at CEO and Director Level and travelled extensively throughout the world as a Security Consultant. He is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and an Advisor to a USA based international conflict advisory group.