

Luis Perez

Sales Director North and South America

Based in Miami, USA, Luis has an intimate knowledge of the business markets in the USA and the majority of countries in South America.

Over the last 30 years Luis has built up an enviable reputation of excellent service to governments, blue- chip companies, and high net worth private clients in the fields of security which encompasses all aspects of electronic surveillance, counter surveillance and the protection of government, commercial and private estates.

The consummate discreet professional, Luis has demonstrated his capability of successfully negotiating at the very highest levels of government, commerce and the private sector. His background in banking and finance coupled with his engaging personality and multi-lingual skills have has proved a great asset in business.

Les Leek, Managing Director of SIS said, "Luis brings to SIS the unique knowledge and insight into governments and business clients in throughout the Americas and his standing and reputation in those areas is incredibly valuable. We are very fortunate indeed to have Luis on our senior management team.